DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 6-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. Claims 6-13 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim should refer to other claims in the alternative only--, and/or, --cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 6-13 have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Silber (DE19747254A1).

In regards to claim 1, Silber teaches a noninvasive measurement of an internal pressure in elastic vessels in which a force is measured on the outer surface of the vessel and the internal pressure is determined from the measured force and a relaxation profile estimated in advanced and is repeatedly checked after the start of the measurement (See Abstract; Page 4, lines 23-28).

With respect to claim 2, Silber teaches the relaxation profile is ascertained with the aid of an averaging method (Page 4, lines 48-53).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Silber (DE19747254A1).

With respect to claims 3-5, Silber teaches the claimed invention except an averaging is done in two different ways, which differ in their smoothing width and a periodicity of the measured force is ascertained and a window width of the averaging is matched to the window width at least from time to time. However, Silber teaches a method of averaging; therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to apply any type of averaging method as taught by Silber for the purpose of the generation of summarized measurement values.
